WELCOME HOME...

Boasting views of the Georgia Strait and over to the coastal mountains beyond, and offering a recently renovated and tastefully finished living space, this Lost Lake Road home is the epitome of design and functionality and is sure to tick all the boxes.

Situated on a 0.27-acre lot a short drive from amenities, shopping, and dining in North Nanaimo, this home offers 2,465 sqft with three bedrooms and two bathrooms, perfect for the growing family.

Ideal for entertaining, the open-concept main floor offers a wall of windows from which to take in the ocean views with a functional layout to keep everyone connected. The chef's kitchen offers solid surfaces, lots of room for meal prep, and a pantry for all your culinary needs with an adjoining eating area to gather for a meal. A cozy fireplace will make the living room your go-to place on a cooler evening while the family room is just steps away for movies or games night. The primary bedroom is conveniently situated off the living area on the main floor alongside a 4-piece bathroom and a large office/flex space that could easily be repurposed as a bedroom. Two further bedrooms are found on the lower level, ideal for the growing family or for overnight guests along with a 3-piece bathroom and convenient laundry facilities.

Access to the view deck from all living areas including the primary bedroom extends the living space for morning coffee or for entertaining while a mud room off the family room leads to the back deck and out to the rear yard where the abundance of outdoor yard space is perfect for play, with a garage providing room for all the toys and additional parking below for the boat or RV.

Attention to detail is evident throughout this tastefully finished home in which everything has been taken care of for you allowing you more time to enjoy your Island life.
